Moonstruck: Love, Death and the
Destiny of Desire

3 CEUs approved for Psychologists, Social Workers,
LPCs, LMFTs, and LADCs

Description of Course Content

Moonstruck is an endearing film about love and triangles, including the universal triangle of the relationship one has with Love and Death. This presentation will focus on how the characters and plot depict various important aspects of this core human experience.

Program:

9:00-9:10am	Introductions
9:10-11:00am	Film Viewing
11:00-11:10am	Break
11:10-11:45am	Paper Presentations
11:45-Noon	Discussion

Learning Goals and Objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Become acquainted with one model for understanding, through film, the fate of the desire for love versus disappointment and the importance of both.
2. Understand one psychodynamic model of the "limits of love".
3. Engage the contrast between "perverse solutions" to these issues versus more "mature" ones.
