

SHORT-TERM STUDY GROUP OPPORTUNITIES

(All groups will meet in N.W. OKC offices. There is no charge but space for each is very limited, so please call the designated contact person ASAP to reserve a spot. No CEUs are offered.)

Writings of Charles Fisher group led by Bruce Lochner, Ph.D.

Contemporary classical psychoanalysis is conducted differently than it was when Sigmund Freud introduced it more than a century ago. In this reading group, we will focus on three areas of contemporary classical psychoanalysis in advance of Dr. Fisher's OSPS presentation on October 1st. These are: a) optimizing the beginning phase of treatment, b) the concept of signal anxiety and some implications for technique, c) the process of change from an “inside out” perspective. Group will meet on Saturdays, September 10th, 17th, and 24th from 1:30 to 3:00. Contact Carol Mason-Straughan at 405.579.1700 to reserve a spot.

Writings of James Fosshage: Themes and Trends, led by John Jantzen, LCSW

In preparation for Dr. Fosshage's November 19th OSPS presentation on Dreams, this six-week study group will examine and discuss a variety of his writings. Participants will be emailed a syllabus/list of readings, including PDF files for each of the articles, in mid-September. Dr. Fosshage is an internationally known speaker and writer and was the founding president of the International Association for Psychoanalytic Self Psychology. The group will meet Friday afternoons, 2:30-4:00 p.m., October 14th, 21st, 28th, and November 4th, 11th, 18th. Call Carol at 405.579.1700 to reserve your place.

Frank Summers Book Discussion led by Alison Dancer, M.D.

To augment Dr. Summers' February 25th OSPS presentation, this group will meet to discuss his latest book by the same name, The Psychoanalytic Vision: The Experiencing Subject, Transcendence, and the Therapeutic Process. Dr. Summers is a nationally known speaker and prolific writer on Object Relations theories and their application to psychoanalytic psychotherapy, as well as a past president of Division 39. The group will meet Sunday afternoons, 2:00-4:00 p.m., February 5th, 12th, and 19th. Call Carol at 405.579.1700 to reserve a place.
